We specialize in tax planning and preparation, with emphasis in tax reduction and wealth preservation. Our services are not limited to tax preparation. Enrolled Agent status allows me to represent you before the IRS or the Department of Revenue. Letters or audits from these agencies may be confusing and cause a lot of stress. I resolve these matters for my clients. I provide many financial needs for small businesses. Employee benefits are critical but a financial burden on businesses. I can help explain and provide benefit packages and make sure coverage is complete and competitive. During these difficult economic times, employers may be reducing or eliminating benefits. I can evaluate life, health and disability insurance to supplement or complete these benefits. These services are available for the self-employed and business owners.

We encourage you to contact us for any tax and financial matter.
